"I am San Diego. Don't take that the wrong way, it's not arrogance, it's the truth. Everything about me reflects this wonderful city."

The LIST: How'd you get into spinning?

Mikey Beats: I have played Bass guitar for over 15 years now and I played in a band for 9 years with Jimi Lane of Split Finger. Him and I went our separate ways, so I decided to focus on practicing on my turntables. With my SD hustle, I managed to get a few gigs and with time got better. Does any one remember lugging around 2 milk crates of records and a full backpack? Yeah, I did that, did you?

The LIST: Where are you from?

Mikey Beats: Born and raised in San Diego. I grew up on the same block as my father in Bay Park. As soon as I was old enough to ride a bus, I was at Pacific Beach on Felspar Street.

I am San Diego. Don't take that the wrong way, it's not arrogance, it's the truth. Everything about me reflects this wonderful city:
