SAN DIEGO, CA — April 24, 2013 — On Thursday, April 25, 2013, San Diego female Hip-Hop artist Miki Vale, will release her latest EP, The Good, The Bad and The Lovely.

Inspired by family, relationships and her deep roots in the underground Hip-Hop culture, her EP explores the good and bad aspects of love – all coming from personal life experiences.

“Miki Vale’s lyricism is beyond measure, too dope to even put into proper words. [...] This EP is definitely worth having in your collection if you’re a true lover of REAL Hip-Hop,” said Yolanda Melton from San Diego’s Eye on Music

Born in Oxnard, CA, Miki came from a musical family: her dad a drummer, one brother a DJ, and her other brother, rapper and singer Dudley Perkins aka Declaime. These musical influences led her to rapping and starting her career as a recording artist at CDP Studios in Ventura with Hip-Hop artist, Oh No.

No stranger to the music industry, Miki Vale's live performances have captivated audiences at premiere venues such as Porter's Pub, House of Blues Los Angeles, Belly Up Tavern, Ruby Room, Lyceum Theater, Brick by Brick, and Kaos Network (Project Blowed), just to name a few.

"Miki appeals to the masses rapping about real life situations, politics, and women's rights. Unlike her peers, her craft is not about looks or material objects. Rather, Miki's lyrics and messages in her songs, in combination with her strong stage presence, is what makes her so special," said Mike Beltran, Vice President of Sleeping Giant Music.

It's no surprise that Miki Vale has been nominated for a San Diego Music Award for Best Hip-Hop Artist and Best Hip-Hop Album. Collaborating with some of Hip-Hop's elite artists, including Dudley Perkins aka Declaime, Georgia Anne Muldrow, Kankick, Oddisee, and S1 of Strange Fruit Project, she continues to make her mark on the music industry with her soulful and powerful lyrics and musicality. Miki Vale is taking the music world by storm.

Look out for her upcoming tour dates later this summer. Check out her full bio here. For booking inquiries, e-mail bookings@sleepinggiantmusic.com.
