Disco Fries are known for their incredibly polished production chops, being the track 'finishers' and high energy DJ sets. From London to LA, Netherlands to NY, 'Pieces' was literally created in 'pieces' with the trio collaborating across the globe. Originally written as a love song, 'Pieces' embraces feelings of confidence and positivity, and how that special person can build you up, 'piece by piece.'

VASSY brilliantly articulates this mood with her spirited melodic outbursts, interlaced with vintage piano chord stabs and well-crafted builds, the song elevates with Bingo Players and Disco Fries soulful house production. 'Pieces' delivers nostalgic, feel good house sounds, with explosive vocals and melodies, appeals to something we all yearn for, a 'piece' of love. The track is out now via Spinnin Records!
